

Trinity Christian School
Ninth Grade Summer Reading Requirements

This summer all rising ninth grade students are required to read and report on Lloyd C. Douglas's The Robe. Students must be prepared to intelligently discuss this book in class the first week of school, especially noting the struggles that Marcellus (the main character) faces as he is confronted with the reality of Christ in a pagan world.

This report is due on the first day of the new school year. It will count as several homework grades. Use the following guidelines on the attached pages.

PLEASE NOTE: This book is not difficult to read, but it is long! Please start this book early in the summer!
